OPPORTUNITIES FOR HOMESEEKERS

Resources of the Grande Ronde Valley, Union County, Oregon.

HOMES FOR THE INDUSTRIOUS

Climate Like that of Salt Lake but More Humid-Unexcelled for Fruit and Stock Growing.

Special Correspondence.

La Grande, Union Co., Ore., Dec. 7 .-In answer to many inquiries respecting the facilities offered homeseekers in this new Stake of Zion, the presidency of the Stake, F. S. Bramwell, C. W. Nibley and L. J. Jordan, have issued a circular briefly outlining the resources of this wonderful and beautiful section of the state of Oregon.

Union county covers an area of about 3,000 square miles, and is thus a general principality within itself. Its chief products are fruits, cereals of all kinds minerals, cattle, horses, sheep and lum-At present, however, the county does not depend upon the product of its mines for its sustenance and pros-perity, but does boast of its unper-alleled yield of fruits, its astonishing grain productions, its herds and flocks of sheep and cattle, its forests of valuable fir and pine timber and the im ortance of its sugar beet industry. As the World's Fair in Chicago, Union ounty carried away a greater number awards for the excellence of its fruit splay than any other county in the ith the first premiums for its fruits and it was Union county that earned this commonwealth that great dis thetion. Thirty boxes of apples to the is maturity, is an expected ield, and as many as forty-six boxes have been taken from one tree. In 1900 rees 1,120 boxes of marketable apple Fruit growers unacquainted with this ments, but investigation will re The prune crop like. ise is amazingly prolific. These bear ing trees are a sight never to be forgotten. The branches are freighted to the earth with the burden of their yield, year in and year out. Strawberries pherries, and all small fruits grow in LITTLE NEED OF IRRIGATION. Orchards are seen on all sides which have never had any water except as heaven has sprinkled them. All kinds o grain grows here profusely. Irrigation does not seem to be necessary but there a large amount of water available, subject to appropriation for ditch puroses in case persons should have any loubt as to the productiveness of the soil without irrigation.

SUGAR BEET INDUSTRY.

The sugar beet culture has become an important industry in this county, and beet sugar factory of a capacity of 350 tons of beets per day is now in operation here. When properly attended to, beet culture has proven highly profitable, farmers realizing a net profit as per acre from their growth To this industry it is desired to call special attention here. There are fores in it for all who may come here with a ready capital of from, say, $1,000 and upward. The land is here and may had at reasonable cost. Tillers needed now, for these garden acres, rich as the far-famed valley of

There should not be an idle acre of and in this county that is susceptible of cultivation. There are fortunes for the farmer in this county, and they may ad with but a modicum of ef-Immigration of this class is urgnvited. Magnificent rewards are awalting all industrious citizens who may east their lots with the most generous and hospitable people now resid-

STOCK GROWING.

Emphasis should also be placed on the advantages of Union county as a stock growing section. Nowhere can cattle, norses and sheep be raised with greater returns for cost and care. Two offities of large returns are guaranteed those of poultry and hog raising. In the poultry and egg business there has never been a time when the supply waled the demand. Besides shipments to Porpland there is an ever constant narket to the surrounding mines. The average price of eggs is 25 cents per dozen; never has the price been less the price has been 40 to 50 cents per dozen. Poultry has never sold for less than $3 a dozen. Dressed poultry selling readily at from 40 to 50 cents each. furkeys and ducks sell at 15 to 16 cents

Raising swine for the market is another profitable industry. Hogs are always healthy here and the price seems uniform at 5 cents per pound live

With the possibilties thus presented one can readily see that if in order to procure a home in this "Eden of the West" it is necessary to shoulder a reasonably heavy indebtedness that there is every chance to be relieved of this burden by the product of the soil. When one can acquire a home in a section of the country known for its fertility and where a ready market for every kind of product has been established at but a small advance in price above desert land, without the consequent inconveniences, one can readily see the advantages Grande Ronde Val-

The altitude of this valley is about 2,700 feet above the sea level with cli-mate similar to Salt Lake City, Utah, with perhaps less severe frosts during the winter months and the summer nights a little cooler. The former is doubtless due to this being lower, and the latter to the fact that this vallev is much more moist and naturally the atmosphere becomes cooler. About one-third more rain falls here during nonths of May and June than in this famous valley is that it is surounded with extensive forests and numerous sawmills are extering to the demands of the populace, and good common lumber is obtainable at $6 per two miles and the people of this sec-tion are strong supporters of educa-tion. The people are generous and soclable and seldem can be found a more desirable people to have as neighbors.

The dairy offers possibilities of exceedingly large rewards, butter selling at 25 cents to 35 cents per pound and mile at 5 cents of the control of the c and milk at 5 cents a quart with a contantly increasing demand. Good pasture land is obtainable here a $2.50 per acre up. county, contains a population of be-tween four and five thousand souls, and is one of the three important commer-cial centers of Eastern Oregon. The chi is located on the line of the Ore fon Railroad & Navigation company, 305 miles east of Portland, and its me-tropolitan appearance and congental as-sociations, as a place of residence would be difficult to picture. A ma-fority of its fine hysiness blocks are constructed of brick, are of superior architectural appearance, and in them all branches of mercantile pursuits are banks—the La Grande National bank and Farmers and Traders' National— each with a capital of $60,000.

While fortunes may not be plucked from the branches of the trees, plethora of opportunities are ball, as plethora of opportunities are offered for obtaining homes that for desirability are not excelled, perhaps, on this continent, but they are not tossed with reckless abandon into the hands of any person or every individual who vill accept the gift.

La Grande supports two daily news-papers, the Chronicle and the Observboth live and interesting sheets. has a commodious house, electric lights, waterworks, churches, of many denominations, magnificent schools and a fine club house, the home of the Commercial club, an association of business men anded together primarily to promote the business interests of the city and its surroundings, and incidentally for ts social features.

Further information may be obtained by addressing any of the gentlemen be-fore mentioned.

OGDEN, UTAH, - DEC. 12, 1901

NEW DISTRICT COURT RULE

Promulgated by Judge Rolapp Respecting Mileage and Per Diem of Witnesses.

L. A. Comes Captured - Ebb Loses Damage Suit-Scoffeld-Sordan Nuptiuls-Fine Poultry Exhibit.

L. A. Comes has been arrested at Laramie, Wyoming, by Sheriff Smiley of that place, and will be brought to Ogden to answer to a serious charge. The man Comes came to Ogden some time ago, and claimed to be a veterinary surgeon, and got into the good graces of J. C. Rankin, the livery stable man, who advanced Comes $60 in payment for some instruments sent him by express, also the express charges of $6.50, which he agreed to refund in veterinary work On Monday he got the instruments from the livery stable and skipped out with a train load of horses for the East, and Mr. Rankin notified the sheriff, who had him arrested.

SCOFIELD-JORDAN NUPTIALS. John M. Jordan, 24, and Miss Maude Scoffeld, 19, both of Ogden, were yester-day given a marriage license.

NEW COURT RULE. The following card has been issued to the members of the bar, by County Clerk Hollingsworth, under direction of

I beg to advise you that on December 7th the following rule of this court was promulgated in retaxing of mileage and per diem of witnesses, and you will govern yourselves accordingly hereafter preparing memorandum of

"Whereas, the power of this court to punish non-attendance of a subpoenaed witness does not exist unless such witness resides within the county, or at a place less than thirty miles distant from the place of trial.

Therefore, in all cases where a witness resides outside of the county, and voluntarily obeys the subpoena, and comes from a distance greater than twenty-nine miles, the mileage for such witness in excess of twenty-nine miles cannot be taxed as costs. If a witness is in attendance upon the court, in good faith, and has not been subpoensed, then charges for his actual attendance only will be allowed; and if a witness resides at a distance less than twentynine miles, but without the county, and is duly subpoenaed, he will be entitled eater returns for cost and care. FISH AND GAME TAKEN AND SOLD Bass, 25.900 lbs. at 121/c, $3,237.50; trout, 850 lbs. at 15c, $127.50; carp, 145,-562 lbs. at 11/c, $2,183.43; suckers, 139,-044 lbs, at 11/c, $2,085,66,

Also estimated that there were caught from Provo river during the months of March, April, May and June by means suckers at 1½c. $1,800; chubs, 20,599 lbs. at 1½c. $310.87; catfish, 13,765 lbs. at sc. $1,101.20; ducks. 295 dozen at $1.40, $413; grouse, 246 dozen at $2.00, $492; venison, 1,495 lbs. at 10c, $149.50. Total $11,900,66. The report continues: "It will be impossible to give an estimate of the trout caught for domestic purposes, which accounts for the small amount of this kind of fish reported nerewith: 250,000 eastern lake trout fry have been planted in Dry creek, southwest of Provo: 75,000 native trout have been planted in Drk creek and 25,000 in the mouth of the South Fork canyon; 75,000 eastern brook trout have been been planted in Dry creek and 25,000 in South Fork, Provo canyon; 25,000 east-ern brook trout were planted in Hobbie creek canyon and are reported a fall-leaving the warden's hands.

"There have also been improvements made during the year as follows: Four wheels in the factory race have been acreened in June of this year; fish runway at power dam in Provo canyon repaired, but not as directed by the county warden. I look upon the condition of the power dam in Provo canyon with its auxiliaries as a menace to the trout and herring of Provo river." Seventy-seven bass (spawners) and forty last spring fry have been furnished to stock private ponds throughout the state. Fifty carp have been furnished for the same purpose. Injured fish have been condemned and sold dur ing the year to the value of $8.10.
